

Global Elements at each Girl Scout Grade Level Ambassador

Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting

- Girls of the World – WAGGGS Countries, page 13
- List of WAGGGS Countries, page 16
- World Thinking Day, page 18
- World Trefoil Pin, page 22
- World Thinking Day Award, page 30, Award Requirements
- Global Action Award, page 30, Award Requirements

Legacy Badges

- Photographer – Women in the Material World: read the book Women in the Material World, page 4
- Public Policy – Engage as a global citizen: Compare laws, Track a public-policy issue being challenged in another country, or Explore an international NGO (non-governmental organization), page 3
- Dinner Party – Decorate according to your menu theme: pick a theme and menu based on another culture, page 7
- Ambassador Girl Scout Way – Celebrate World Thinking Day: Follow in the steps of female leaders, Make World Thinking Day cards, or Earn their World Thinking Day award, page 3; Share sisterhood around the world: Explore an issue affecting girls and women globally, Organize an event on women and STEM careers, or Interview a global citizen, page 4

Journeys

It's Your World–Change It!

Your Voice, Your World

Ambassadors raise their voices to advocate for issues they care about.

Advocate – Around the world, teens like you and people younger and older are raising their voices on advocates. Research their causes, Girl Book, page 7

Advocacy: It's for Everyone – Read Rosa's story, Girl Book, page 20-21

Community Connections – Communities are circles of connection – geographic, cultural, religious, or familial, Girl Book, page 38

Your Global Community – Talk about the global sisterhood that Ambassadors have through the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), Girl Book, page 40

Worldwide Sisterhood – For WAGGGS, advocacy means “speaking, doing, and educating”, Adult Guide, page 6

It's Your World, Get to Know It! – Read watch national and international news reports, Girl Book, page 41

Susana Trimarco De Veron: When the Personal Becomes Public – Read about Susana’s story about her daughter, Girl Book, page 59

Six degrees of separation – Read about the “Six Degrees of Kevin Bacon” and try it out with someone from around the world, Girl Book, page 64

Possible VIPs – VIPs are people or organizations that need to hear about your issue and help you take action. Look at the Global Outreach suggestions, Girl Book, page 68

Maria Hinojosa’s story – Read about Maria’s story, Girl Book, page 100

It’s Your Planet–Love It!

Justice

Ambassadors learn that leaders aim for justice.

Hearts + Minds – Read about The Start of an Equation for Justice, Girl Book, page 5

Toward the Sage Award – Read about where the botanical genus of Sage comes from and what other cultures believe sage can do, Girl Book, page 10

Important Dates in Environmental History – Read about environmental history from around the world from 1919 to 2007, Girl Book, page 20-21

Maquiladoras – Learn about maquiladoras in Mexico, Girl Book, page 31

Unequal Footprints – Read about the average footprint of a person in the United States compared to Africa or Asia, Girl Book, page 48

Big Sister, Big Clock – Read about an experiment done in Bangkok, Thailand, Girl Book, page 52

Case Study No. 4: Cholera in London – Read about the recurring epidemic of cholera in London in 1854, Girl Book, page 82

Women and Children First? – Read about the environmental problems that effect women and children in the developing world, Girl Book, page 85

Nature Break – Read about countries that rely on woodburning stoves, and then try the activity, Girl Book, page 87

Hot on Campus! – Read about the topic of global health on college campuses, Girl Book, page 92-93

The Good of Greenery – Read about researchers in Scotland that found that parks, woodland, and other green open spaces help narrow the health gap, Girl Book, page 99

Travel – Encourage girls to check out GSUSA Destinations that relate to Justice; talk about the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Adult Guide, page 19

It’s Your Story–Tell It!

Bliss: Live It! Give It!

Girls move dreams forward!

Go There! – Dream of making travel a part of your daily life? Look at the travel-happy careers and talk about GSUSA destinations, Girl Book, page 13

Trips and Travel – Travel, whether national or local, is a big part of Girl Scouting. Encourage girls to check out GSUSA destinations and WAGGGS, Adult Guide, page 19

Vintage Map Pendants – Get creative and have girls make these pendants with maps of places they are excited to visit, Adult Guide, page 76-77