

Global Elements at each Girl Scout Grade Level

Junior

Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting

- The Beginning of Girl Scouts, Page 10-12
- Our Girl Scout World, Page 13-16
- World Thinking Day, Page 20
- The Girl Scout Bronze Award, Page 26
- World Thinking Day award, Page 34, Award Requirements
- Global Action award, Page 34, Award Requirements

Legacy Badges

- Inside Government – Get a global view: ask someone what it was like to live in another country as compared to the United States, page 2
- Simple Meals – Fix a healthy lunch or dinner: International sandwich, page 8
- Junior Girl Scout Way – Badge Activities that Celebrate Our Global Sisterhood: try these badge activities that ask girls to be considerate of other cultures, to be sisters to Girl Scouts around the world, and to be friendly and helpful when welcoming others into their communities, page 6
- Flowers – visit a botanical garden that has plants from other countries; Find out how flowers help people: find out about medicinal flowers or herbs and how they help people in other countries, page 4

Journeys

It's Your World–Change It!

Agent of Change

Juniors learn that leaders need power – their own, their team's, and their community.

The Power of Words – Talk with girls about countries with a common history or economic or political interests are communities, Girl Book, page 25

Who can mobilize the moxie – Talk with girls about the Iraqi National Folklore Group, Dancers on page 40; talk about other young heroines around the world, Girl Book, page 39-41

Detours Along the Journey – Ideas for field trips, activities and game, Adult Guide, page 42-43

It's Your Planet–Love It!

Get Moving

Juniors bring energy solutions to the world.

The World is abuzz over energy use – Talk about how other countries are taking action to reduce their carbon footprint, Girl Book, page 14-15

A World View – How CO2 emissions compare by country, Girl Book, page 17

Natural Packaging – Talk about Russian Nesting Dolls and where they originated and go on a scavenger hunt for other food and nature objects that have nesting and natural packaging shapes, Girl Book, page 30

Paper or Plastic... Money – Talk about other countries using plastic money, Girl Book, page 33

Dancing Through the Rainforest – Read Mireya Mayor’s story about her trip to South American and Madagascar, Girl Book, page 50

Elephant Watch – Read Melissa Songer’s story about her work with Asian elephants, Girl Book, page 51

Energizing sights Around the World – Talk about energizing sights from around the world like the northern lights and Victoria Falls, Girl Book, page 52-53

When the Sun Goes Down and the Stars Come Out – Take part in reporting the measure of light in their cities’ night sky at globe.gov/GaN/, Girl Book, page 59

Energy in Buildings & Building for Energy – Talk about buildings around the world that were built to use less energy and fewer resources, Girl Book, page 61-65

On the Move – Talk about community bike-sharing programs around the world, Girl Book, page 76-81

Making Each Car Count – Read Robin Chase’s story about how she created a ride-sharing network after learning about German cities that offered this program, Girl Book, page 84

Juniors and the Great Outdoors – Take a camping trip and talk about light pollution and the lure of a campfire, Adult Guide, page 14-16

Good for Us, Good for the Planet – Reminds girls how much energy would be saved if their 10 million Girl Scout and Girl Guide sisters united in the pledge, Adult Guide, page 39

It’s Your Story–Tell It!

aMuse

Girls explore all the roles open to them in life.

Stories Circle the Globe – Talk about how other countries and cultures have told stories for thousands of years, Girl Book, page 40-41

Josefina and the Giant Tortilla – Read Josefina Lopez’s story and talk about traditions or stereotypes around the world and brainstorm what could be done, Girl Book, page 50-51

Encourage the Girls to Customize, and add surprise – Encourage the girls to go all out with ceremonies and traditions by experiencing new adventures, Adult Guide, page 19