

Global Elements at each Girl Scout Grade Level Senior

Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting

Destinations, Page 9

Movement of about 150 countries and 10 million sisters, Page 12

Girls of the World – WAGGGS Countries, Page 12

List of WAGGGS Countries, Page 16

World Thinking Day, Page 20

World Trefoil Pin, Page 24

World Thinking Day Award, Page 33, Award Requirements

Global Action Award, Page 33, Award Requirements

Legacy Badges

Collage Artist – Read about three collage time periods or styles, page 2

Behind the Ballot – Explore voting in other countries: Explore voting procedures abroad, Follow a foreign election, or Explore women voting or female leaders abroad, page 10

Senior Girl Scout Way – The World Song, page 2; Explore Girl Scout music: trace the roots of traditional Girl Scout songs, page 2

Journeys

It's Your World–Change It!

Girltopia

Seniors learn that leaders have a vision and can move the world a step closer to it.

Welcome to the Journey – Read the statistics about girls around the world, Girl Book, page 4

Rate Your World – To make a real change in girls' lives, you need to be knowledgeable about the quality of those lives right now in the world, Adult Guide, page 13-18

Think about it, talk about it – Have girls imagine an ideal place and check out travel opportunities to those places, Girl Book, page 22

Helping the World Right from Home – Read about Neela's visit to India and how she used her science smarts to fight world hunger, Girl Book, page 39

Figuring out your Ethical Standards – Although not everyone shares the same sense of personal ethics, most people in the world have many ethical principles in common, Girl Book, page 44-45

Think globally, act locally! – Look at problems around the world, and ask the girls how they can do something about them locally, Girl Book, page 76

Who Makes What? Who Does What? – Talk about men making more money than women in the United States, how is it in other countries?, Girl Book, page 78

Choice: It's All Up to the Girls – Field Trips, visit regional sites and organizations related to the topic's girls choose for their creative and Take Action projects, Adult Guide, page 14

Shared Visions of GIRLtopia – Have the girls think about ways in which the world is not perfect, specifically for girls, Adult Guide, page 39

It's Your Planet–Love It!

Sow What

Seniors find out what leaders can sow for Earth.

Shopping the COOL Way – Talk about Country of Origin Labeling; have the girls look at different food in the supermarkets or in their refrigerators for COOL labeling, Girl Book, page 15

Food Prints – Look at COOL labeling and chart out ingredients and the food miles, Adult Guide, page 36-37

Mapping Your Pantry – Visit a grocery store or look in kitchen cabinets and have girls put a dot on each country named on the labels, Girl Book, page 18

Location, Location, Location – Talk about certain foods that are only grown in specific places, Girl Book, page 28

Local Foods Around the World – Learn about staple foods of different countries, Girl Book, page 32-33

Honor They Food – Societies around the world honor food traditions and growing cycles with ceremonies for planting, harvesting, and sharing the crops, Girl Book, page 36-37

Bank On It – Learn about the Global Seed Vault in Norway, Girl Book, page 51

Travel – Encourage girls to check out the destination program and the opportunities offered by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Adult Guide, page 19

Customizing the Journey – Take a field trip to regional sites and organizations related to topics girl choose for their Harvest projects, Adult Guide, page 31

Hunger Pain – Explore why the global food network does not feed everyone and what could be done about it, Adult Guide, page 66

Global Perspectives – Identify guest speakers who can visit the group to talk about their firsthand experiences with global hunger, Adult Guide, page 67

Use the Media – Explore the issue of hunger via photographs, documentaries, articles, and videos, Adult Guide, page 69

It's Your Story–Tell It!

Mission Sisterhood

Girls see how much sisterhood does for the world!

Finding the Beauty in Images of Beauty – Find two films or TV shows (one from the United States and one from another country) that include girls who are friends and see if and how the characters portray beauty in themselves and in the relationships, especially with other girls and women, Girl Book, page 20-21

Make Friends Near and Far – Connecting with other Girl Scouts and Girl Guides through the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Girl Book, page 53

Her Cause is Your Cause! – Read about Shannon McNamara and how she gave power to sisterhood by putting two facts she learned about girls in Tanzania, Africa, Girl Book, page 62-63

Travel – Encourage girls to check out the destination program and the opportunities offered by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Adult Guide, page 19

Sisterhood and the Great Outdoors – Taking a field trip outdoors or planning a weekend camping retreat can help sisterhood blossom, Adult Guide, page 35