The Girl Scout Leadership Experience

Four Pillars of the GSLE

Everything in Girl Scouts centers around our four pillars, designed to meet her where she is now and to grow along with her. Whether she's building a robotic arm, coding her first app, packing for her first hike, or advocating for change in her community, a Girl Scout has an exciting array of choices to suit her interests at every age.

Five Outcomes of the GSLE

Our GSLE is a one-of-a-kind leadership development program for girls, with proven results. When girls participate in Girl Scouts, they thrive in five key ways:

1. Strong Sense of Self
2. Positive Values
3. Challenge Seeking
4. Healthy Relationships
5. Problem Solving

What is Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts is the one activity where she can put on a play, go camping, explore the cosmos, and stand up for her beliefs—all with friends who share your values. It's also a way of life. Being a Girl Scout makes kids part of something bigger than themselves. It means they're part of a movement working toward a more fair, equal, and compassionate world where everyone can make their dreams come true. Girl Scouts in your town and across the country are trying new things and testing their limits, all with the goal of making their communities and the world a better place. Because while one girl can make a difference, there's no limit to what a unified movement of Girl Scouts across the globe can accomplish. Check out our values in the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Why Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts gives girls the tools to fuel their ambition, try new things, learn from failure, discover their strengths, and rise to meet new challenges – whether they want to climb to the top of a tree or the top of their class, lace up their boots for a hike or advocate for climate justice, or make their first best friends. Backed by trusted adult volunteers, mentors, and millions of alums, Girl Scouts lead the way as they find their voices and make changes that affect the issues most important to them. Girl Scouts isn't just another activity – it's a way of life.
