

2024 Fall Product Caregiver Outstanding Balance Form

The purpose of the Outstanding Balance Form is to assign financial responsibility for unpaid products to the appropriate party. Completing and submitting this form protects the Troop Product Manager and Troop from owing funds to the council.

FORM INSTRUCTIONS:

Gather receipts (product and money), Girl Scout's Caregiver Permission and Responsibility form, and all communication history. Use these documents to complete this form:

- Caregiver Permission and Responsibility form will be used to complete Section A.
- Product receipts will be used to complete Section B.
- Money receipts will be used to complete Section C.
- Communication history is used to complete Section D.

Scan and submit the completed Outstanding Balance Form and attachments to product program staff via email, product@girlscoutsdiamonds.org by the designated deadline. Volunteers should expect a response of receipt within 24-48 hours. If not, please call the product program team to ensure the email came through successfully.

Required supporting documents and their importance:

Caregiver Permission and Responsibility Form – This form legally binds the caregiver and states that they knew and understood their responsibilities in participating in the program and accepting products from the troop.

- Product Receipts – Receipts of the products that the caregiver took possession of from the troop provides legal proof that responsibility was transferred from the troop to the caregiver. Both parties', giver and receiver of products, signatures must be on the receipt.
- Money Receipts – Receipts of any monies turned into the troop provides legal documentation that payments were made to the troop. The signatures of both parties' giver and receiver of money must be on the receipt. These receipts also help to determine the true balance due from the parent.

ALL FORMS MUST BE RECEIVED FOR PROCESSING BY FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2024.

FORMS SUBMITTED WITHOUT REQUIRED SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS WILL BE REJECTED AND THE TROOP DRAFT WILL NOT BE ADJUSTED.
